12. You are free to host or co-host multiple programs. But you must complete a program application and present it to your station manager to present to Rattler Publishing for each program. Once the program is submitted your station manager will either schedule an interview with the project manager and or relay to you the project and the allotted times the program will air if approved.
13. You must maintain complete control of the platform during live broadcasting times and must do the following
 - a.) You must not allow an unmelanted person to occupy the studio. • You must not consider, the trails or tribulations or the archaic ideology...ie train of thought of the unmelanted person or persons.
 - b.)The only exception are call ins. You must never agree with an unmelanted against our people or the purpose of this mission. In the case the caller become rude or derogatory be it melanated or not to our people, our lineage, the purpose, Rattler Publishing, Gemini or MCR. Informed them “They have the wrong number and hang up. *Please Note: MCR Host Co-Host or station managers are not there to pacify, or to be a victim to a white with limited a thought, and you must not yield to any white or his Sambo infected with W.I.S (white inferior syndrome); you owe them no explanation of the matrix of Rattler Publishing, Gemini or MCR. In short: explanation's of the previous is not the purpose for becoming and MCR host, co-host, or station manager; fuck'em. (and that's as nice as we get on it).
14. If you are a co-host of an approved MCR program and the host is unavailable at broadcasting times you are to contact the Project Manager and continue the program as scheduled. At any time the host is unavailable for any length of time, you assumed the responsibilities of the host for the duration of the absence.
15. As an MCR host you are responsible for obtaining sponsors for your program (programming advertising details will be sent in the welcome package)
16. You are to encourage sponsorship from listeners for station donations.
17. If you have an idea for a program you want to bring to the MCR platform. Obtain and complete the required documents and submit the package to the project manager to be presented to the MCR Admin. If approved by Rattler Publishing, your station manager will decide the appropriate broadcasting times of the new program if it is to be a pre-recorded program, but will take in consideration the times you suggest if it is to be a live broadcast.
18. If you would like to recommend someone to becoming a co-host for your program or a new program host contact the project manager.
